NO JUNIOR RACE

The Rowing Association met last evening and was presided over by A. L. C. Atkinson. After much discussion it was decided to do away with the Junior six-oared sliding-seat barge race. The Healan crew has no boat in which to practice and this is mainly the cause for such action. And then women are not as numerous as they have been at past times. Mr. Atkinson thought that the omission of this race would cause the Healan club to get together and make some provision to get a boat for future use. The Myrtle Club thought it was a bad idea to give up this event but it could not be helped.

Both the Japanese tug-of-war and the sampan races will be cut out and arrangements will be made to pull off the events with more snap. The committee will try to handle the events so that the affair will be over early in the afternoon.

A crew of Hawaiians from Kailua will be brought over to compete in the canoe race. Prince Kalaninuihale discovered this crew and claims that they will make the local lads hustle to defeat them. The expense of bringing this crew to Honolulu will be stood by the association.

The program as arranged is as follows:

Six-oared stationary seat gigs, spoon oars barred; straight ash oars instead. Six-oared Senior sliding-seat barge—second-class yachts. First-class yachts. Six-oared Freshmen sliding-seat barge. Whaleboats, around Spar buoy.

Six-paddle canoes. Senior pair-oared shells. Junior pair-oared shells. Steamer boats, five-oared. Sailing canoes, center or lee-boards barred. Shore boats. The meeting was an enthusiastic one and from the spirit shown the association means to do things in proper shape on this day.

NO FIGHT IN SIGHT

The Sullivan-Weich fight has put Honolulu right mad, and just now the public is clamoring for more bouts. Absolutely nothing is known of this fight with the exception that he is off the transport. Before a match is made between he and Sullivan, McIlvrain will be tried out. It would not do to spring some dub on the public just at this stage of the game.

To be right in line and up to date McIlvrain and Sullivan will do a boxing turn at the Zoo. This is the proper thing for fighters these days and McIlvrain and Sullivan are not behind the times.

Silva added a victory to his record the other day and put out some poor old fellow who did not know how to put up his hands. The bout was held as a try-out for the new man.

GARTER DOES NOT WANT NUUANU PARK

Governor Carter has expressed his disapproval of the scheme to set aside the Queen Emma Nuuanu property for a park. In the following letter on the subject:

Executive Chamber, Honolulu, Hawaii, September 4, 1906.

P. Higgins, Esq., Secretary Upper Nuuanu Improvement Club.

Dear Sir: In response to the resolutions passed by your club on August 6th, I beg to say that I do not approve of the setting aside as a public park of the Hanaleiakamama premises, for the following reasons:

First. Public parks are for the relief of thickly populated districts, where the congestion is such that the residents do not have breathing spaces; Second. The taxpayers are contributing at present about all they can stand and this is not sufficient to properly take care of all those areas that are already park.

Very sincerely yours,

(Sgd.) G. R. CARTER, Governor.

DIED.

CHRISTLEY—In this city, Sept. 5, 1906, Beatrice Christley, age 10 years.

Funeral from the Episcopal church at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The name of Bonducult is French in origin. Dion Bonducult was the son of a French refugee who fled to Ireland and married an Irish girl. He was named Dion after his father's friend, Dr. Dionysius Lardner, a noted British writer on physical science.

WRECKED ON AN UNKNOWN ISLAND

The schooner "Lead Pipe Clinch," that left New York City, was wrecked on an unknown island, and all passengers got safely ashore to find the island uninhabited and no knowledge of it on the chart.

Aboard the wrecked schooner, when she foundered in mid-ocean, was the Oriole Opera Co., and this aggregation of musical artists was isolated there on the island of Palms for a year and a day, knowing nothing of the doings of the outside world.

This evening a big rehearsal, with the orchestra, will be held in the Opera House, and it is very necessary that all participating in the performance be on hand.

This is what the comic opera "Ship Ahoy" really is, and when the Myrtle Boat Club presents the opera on the 13th and 15th of this month, the whole weird tale of adventure will be vividly portrayed in song and story.

TAKAYAMA SHOOT FAST LANDED AMONG FEASTERS

Lihue, Kauai, Sept. 3.—Takayama was anxious to give a little variety to his usual dinner last Sunday and for that purpose went out with a shotgun with the intention of adding a bird or two to his larder.

The beautiful grove of ironwood and silver oak in the rear of the church is a great attraction for the feathered tribe, and this circumstance was evidently known to Takayama, as he made a beeline for the place.

He looked around for a delicate morsel, but mynah birds were the only bewinged things he could spy and of them he had grown tired. Just as he was about to seek other hunting grounds he caught sight of a dove a distance off. The churchyard separated him and his intended victim, and the churchyard was full of people enjoying a fine lunch after the Hoihi.

Takayama decided that nothing should stop him from bagging the coveted bird, so he fired across the heads of the congregation at his prey. Either Takayama misjudged the distance or else his gun is no good, as instead of sending death to the bird he scattered a generous dose of buckshot over the feasters.

Of course there was a commotion and little frightened ejaculations from the gentle sex.

Takayama didn't wait to ask what they were screaming for but scooted. There were other printers present, however, and they gave chase and caught the fleeing poacher down by the mill. The police took Takayama in charge and the following day presented him in Judge Kaiwi's court as a common nuisance. He admitted having been one, but promised to reform, so the judge let him off with a one dollar fine and the same amount as costs of court.
